- C. Game & Fish – re: Deer
  - 1. Mayor Behling has been playing telephone tag with officers in Mountain Home, Calico Rock and Little Rock regarding this issue.
    - a. Mayor Behling was finally able to contact the Deer coordinator, Brad, in Little Rock who stated that in order to institute a hunt in the Lakeview area it would require the city to modify their Ordinance, have a census of the deer population, a hearing and a modified Ordinance written and voted upon by the public.
    - b. Game and Fish can cull the herd based upon issues with the deer population.

1. Game and Fish will be conducting a meeting this month, and the City will wait until they know the results of the meeting before proceeding with the changes, etc. necessary to conduct a hunt.
2. Mrs. McCormick on Ridgewood has had a herd of approximately 30 deer on her property.
3. Barbara Winnburg reported she also has had a herd of deer plus turkey on her property and would they be subject to a hunt?
4. Ald. Gies addressed these concerns by reiterating what Mayor Behling had said, that no hunt would be conducted without the approval of the voters of Lakeview. It would have to take place during a regular designated hunting season and conducted by bowhunters with special permits and instructions for hunting within the City limits.
