

Ron Czanstkowski is a 1985 graduate of Mountain Home High School. He attended North Arkansas College for two years, and then transferred to Northwest Missouri State University where he received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematical Sciences, a Bachelor of Science Degree in Secondary Mathematics Education, and a Minor in Coaching. While attending Northwest Missouri State University, he met and later married his wife, Alecia, a native of Saint Joseph, Missouri. Ron worked 10 years at Mountain Home High School teaching all levels of mathematics, and he also served as an assistant junior high football coach and head baseball coach. During that time, he continued his education at Arkansas State University where he completed his Master's Degree in Secondary School Administration, as well as acquiring his Superintendent Certification. For the next 10 years, Ron served as an Assistant Principal at Mountain Home High School. He then transferred in 2011 to serve as the principal at the Mountain Home Junior High School. Ron is a long-time member of the Twin Lakes Youth Baseball Board and serves as a Bible study leader for teenagers in grades 7-12. He and his family are members of Redeemer Lutheran Church. Ron and Alecia have two children: Kaitlin (2012 MHHS graduate) and Ryan.
