Mrs. Allyson Dewey was hired as assistant principal at Pinkston Middle School in the spring of 2011. Prior to beginning her work at Pinkston Mrs. Dewey taught 4th and 5th grade in Mountain Home for 9 years. Mrs. Dewey also had the pleasure of working with the teacher education program at ASU-MH for 3 years. She is a 1995 graduate of Mountain Home High School, a 1999 graduate of University of Central Arkansas, and has a masters' degree in school administration from Arkansas State University. Mrs. Dewey truly believes in the Mountain Home School District motto, "Every student, Every time."

At Pinkston Mrs. Dewey is the special education building designee and 504 building designee. Mrs. Dewey has served on the district curriculum committee, district technology committee, building handbook committee, and as an ACSIP building chairperson. She is currently serving as the administrator on the district vertical alignment committee with the school nurses and as the administrator on the Personnel Policies Committee.

Mrs. Dewey is actively involved in the community. She is a member of the Mountain Home Church of Christ where she was the nursery coordinator for 11 years. She continues to teach Bible classes and work with the youth group. She also is an associate member of Junior Auxiliary of Mountain Home and a coach for area youth ball teams. She is married to Chad and they have 3 daughters who all attend school in Mountain Home.
