

Special Education Information and Overview

The Special Education Department of the Mountain Home School District services about 10% of the total school population. The district currently employs 25 special education teachers including five speech therapists, self-contained teachers, resource teachers, an indirect consultant, and a supervisor. The classified staff includes hearing impaired interpreters, aides, paraprofessionals, and two secretaries. The Special Education office is located at 1230 South Maple in Mountain Home, AR.

The office telephone number is 870-425-1247.