

SENIORS

President . . . . . Sharon Gill
 Vice President . . . . . Roy Brunson
 Secretary . . . . . Marta Henley
 Treasurer . . . . . Virginia Pate

BARNES, SHARON KAYE
 A lovely redhead but without the high temper

BECKER, PETER O.
 God bless the man who first invented sleep

BICKFORD, JOHN Men of few words are best, he believes

BONNER, DREW T.
 Quiet persons are welcome anywhere

BOUSLOG,
 GAIL ELIZABETH Always over head and ears in love

BRADLEY, TERRY DOUGLAS Always striving for the best, never willing to surrender

BROWN, JAMES D.
 A student and sportsman par excellence

BRUNSON, ROY JAMES
 A genial gentleman characterized by quiet wit

BUCHER, CAROL
They say the best council is that of women

BUTCHER, HALLA JEAN Charming, vivacious, a real pal

CHRISTENSEN, SUE It's good to live and learn

CONLEY, T.H.
Quiet, slow, steady

CRAWFORD, VERNON BRUCE
All things come to him who waits

CRAWFORD, PATSY KAY
As dependable as can be found

DeBUSE, LYNDA LUCILLE Giggle and the world giggles with you

ELLIS, JIM
His favorite subject is lunch

GILL, SHARON LEE
Be gone dull cares from me;
Thee and I shall never agree

GILLILAND, WILMA MARIE
She keeps her thoughts to herself

GRANT, CAROLYN SUE
When school and matrimony clash, matrimony wins

HANESWORTH, LYDIANN
This studious miss is deserving and willing,
she will not fail

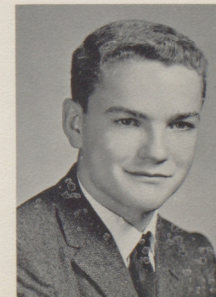

HANEY, HELEN
"Be silent and know"

HARRIS, BILLIE
If silence is golden,
she's poverty-stricken

HATCHER, RICHARD H.
An all-around good fellow,
everybody's friend

HAWKSLEY, DONALD BRIAN Sometimes I work--but usually I play

HAWKSLEY,
JAMES CRAIG

Count no time lost you give to pleasure

HEENAN, JERRY MICÉAL

He puts worries in a pocket with a hole in it

KELLEM, NADINE

A good disposition is more valuable than gold

KIRK, HARRY D.

One boy in a thousand, with a thousand and one ideas

HENLEY, MARTA LOU

An all-around girl and pretty Miss

HENSLEY, DALE

It's better to rust out, than wear out

KOUGH, BETTY JEAN

Knowledge comes, but wisdom lingers

LANG, PAMELA JAYNE

To her, life is one grand sweet song

HENSLEY, SUE

Is she thinking of trading school work for homemaking?

HUBER, DONNA

She says little; thinks much

LESUEUR, LARRY L.

Sometimes quiet, sometimes not always a pal

LEWIS, DELORES EVELYN

A good heart is better than all the gold in the world

JOHNSON, CAROL EILEEN

Pleasant as a friend or acquaintance

JOHNSON, HERBERT JR.

There's nothing to be gained by worrying

LOEFFLER, RONALD WAYNE

We won't be here long, so why grow impatient?

LOWERY, RAND

Much could be said if we could only read his mind

METZGER, CAROL SUE
Next to love, quietness

MICKLEY, JANICE
She left us for the great state of Texas

PERRYMAN, KEITH STEVEN
Possessed with a studious and peaceful nature

PLEASANT, ELAINE
Reveals her talents to a favored few

MOONEY, MARY SUE
Nice things often come in small packages

MOORE, CHERYL ANN
Owner of a smile that seems to bid the world a cheerful good morning

NELSON, JOAN KAYE
It's good to live and learn

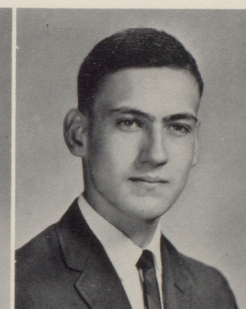

NILSON, SHARON KAY
Her personality contributes to her leadership

POOL, PATRICIA LAURINE
One of our vest pocket editions

PORTER, GEORGE
He goes far in his search for knowledge

QUEEN, GENEVA ANN
A girl too quiet and reserved to reveal her genuine worth

REEVES, LINDA LOU
Always attends to her own business--a desirable trait indeed

PAGE, LINDA LOU
Patient, tolerant, likeable, a real pal

PATE, VIRGINIA ANN
Full of laughter, frolic and fun

RHEIN, CAROLYN LOUISE
Kindness to all is one of her characteristics

ROSS, GEORGE ELLIOTT
Surely I can furnish you with argument and intellect

RUSSELL, ELIZABETH Quietness is her charm, few people have it

RUST, MELVA
With a few efforts, a bit of fun, my work for the day is done

SALTZMAN, SUE ANN
Pretty, enthusiastic, everybody's friend

SCHWANZ, RICHARD CHARLES
He is like Napoleon, small but mighty

SCALES, JIM Manner, not gold, is man's best adornment

SCOTT, LINDA CAROL
The secret of success is constancy of purpose

SHARP, FRANCIS DALE
If he doesn't find a way, he makes one

SCHUMACHER, RALPH
A fine athlete, student and man

SHIPLEY, DON
An all-around good sport

SKIVER, JERRY L.
Never too busy to oblige a friend

SMITH, HAROLD LEON Polite, courteous, congenial, and possessed with a striking personality

SNELGROES, EDITH JAN
Gentle in method, strong in performance

SPEARS, SALLY ANN Soon I shall trade my school work for homemaking duties

SWEARINGEN, SUE S.
Quiet in action, serene in disposition

TINNEL, MICHAEL C.
He was never deep in anything but love

UCHTMAN, LOLA SUE
Pretty -- everybody's friend

WATSON, CAROL
Her ways are ways of pleasantness

WHEAT, CLYDE ROGER
Just give me time for I shall surely reach my goal

WHEELER, JANICE KAY
A happier or quieter girl is hard to find

WILLARD, THELMA IRENE
A willing worker full of plans and action

WISEMAN, MICHAEL LYNN
I can because I believe I can

WOOD, LARRY THURMAN
Quiet on occasion, but jolly at the proper time for fun

WOODS, LYNNETTE
To me, books are mere playmates

ZELK, RICHARD ANDREW
Richard may be small, but he is all there

