Outstanding Seniors Kim Stone and Tony Gilbert

Kim Stone and Tony Gilbert have both been active in sports, as well as extra-curricular and academic activities at MHHS.

Kim played volleyball and basketball throughout high school, starting for both teams during her senior year. She was a member of Beta and FBLA and was Student Council president her senior year. Kim attended Girls' State, was chosen as 1983 Homecoming queen, and was second runner-up in the Mr. and Miss MHHS contest.

Tony was a valuable member to three Bomber teams — football, basketball, and baseball. He started for all three during both his junior and senior years and was named to the All-District teams. Tony also served on the Student Council his senior year.

Robert Justis, Tammy Wiggins and Christy Hildebrand work diligently on the senior Homecoming float.

Everyone knew that our percussion section was different, but this mysterious member (Ted Sward) is stranger than most.

Intensity marks Tom Duncan's face as he watches the defensive play from the sidelines.

The band is famous, or infamous as the case may be, for its unique parties. Jo Ellen Whitfield flashes the crowd at the band's mafia party.
