More than books

We provided 51,000 people with computer access. We helped students, job searchers, researchers, tax payers, children, adults, gamers, scholars and more.

48,000 people attended concerts, afterschool programs, storytimes, magic shows, dance classes, author events, homework help, movies, gardening clubs, Yoga classes, haunted houses, writers groups, service fairs, Renaissance fairs, bridge clubs, Jedi Academies, Harry Potter parties, Seed swaps, Yarnaholics meetings, Sign language classes, and

Arkansas' greatest Comics Convention.

We began taking an active role in the urban garden developed by Gardencorps. We have begun programming around gardening, nutrition, and ecology.

Lifelong Learners:

Building on a successful pilot program at Simon Middle School, we expanded our Lifelong Libraries program, bridging the gap to 9 schools, and bringing our collection to 2,300 students.
