AROUND OUR SCHOOL

BOOKS, BOOKS AND MORE BOOKS

Hackler Intermediate Media Center wants to make every opportunity available to encourage reading. Reading is a way to grow, do research, travel, and to get lost at the same time. All you need is a good book.

One of the resources available to our school is The Donald W. Reynold Library that serves all of Baxter County.

When you are needing a book and the school is not open, what can you do? Go to the Baxter County Library without ever leaving your house. The library has an online library that is available any time to students with a student library tech card. With these cards, students can have access to the library's online resources, to check out books, and the online system will automatically return these when the date rolls around. This alleviates late fees and an unexpected trip to return a book to the library.

Please contact the main office if you have further questions. Students will be issued cards in the next few weeks.

Thank you Donald W. Reynolds for making these Tech Cards available to our students!

BOOK FAIR IS COMING, 10-08-18 through 10-12-18

- PARENT/FAMILY NIGHT: October 9th 4:30 - 6:00 pm.
- Book Fair will be open Monday, October 8th through Thursday, October 11th from 8:00 - 3:00 pm and on Friday, October 12th from 8:00 - 2:00 pm.
- Parents can come to shop with their students during students' library time, during lunch, or during our Parent Night. Students will not be able to get out of class or specials class to shop. We accept cash, checks, and credit cards.
  - Online Book Fair is open for purchases October 8th through October 21st
- Go to scholastic.com/fair, then click Arkansas, click Mountain Home, and then click Hackler Intermediate School. There is no shipping charge, and all books will be delivered to school after the online book fair is over.
